AUCTION NOTICES

The auction will take place as stated above unless the total delinquency (including all taxes, interest, fees, and expenses) is paid in good funds by an owner or encumbrancer of record, or unless the tax collector chooses to adjourn the sale to another date, time, or place. The auction will be open to the public, and any member of the public other than a record owner, lienholder, or encumbrancer may submit a bid in accordance with the rules stated herein and at the auction.

The property will be sold “as is” in all respects. It is not guaranteed buildable under current zoning regulations, and any improvements are not guaranteed habitable. The property may be subject to rights, restrictions, easements, and covenants as of record may appear, as well as building lines, if established, all applicable laws, ordinances, or governmental regulations or rules including but not limited to zoning regulations, Inland-Wetlands Act and regulations, State Health Code and regulations, Solid Waste Disposal Act and regulations, and federal, state, and local laws, regulations, ordinances, and rules relating to the environment. Absolutely no representations whatsoever are made as to the character, quality, usability, value, or suitability of the property or any interests therein.

Interested bidders MUST attend the sale in person or by representative, and tender a deposit of $5,000.00 in cash or certified funds payable to “Pullman & Comley, Trustee.” The successful bidder must pay the balance of the sale price within five (5) days thereafter or forfeit this deposit; in the tax collector’s discretion, the second-highest bid might then be accepted. Title will pass to the purchaser six months after the auction unless an owner or encumbrancer of record redeems the debt by paying the total delinquency plus 1.5% interest on the winning bid, which will be transmitted together to the purchaser. If redemption does not take place by the date six months after the auction and in the manner provided by law, the delinquent taxpayer, and all mortgagees, lienholders and other record encumbrancers who have received actual or constructive notice of such sale as provided by law, are hereby notified that their respective titles, mortgages, liens and other encumbrances in such property shall be extinguished. This means you could permanently lose your interest in the property unless the delinquent taxes, interest, attorney’s fees, and collection expenses are paid in full before the auction or within six months thereafter.

You are advised to consult an attorney to determine your rights and obligations with respect to the tax sale. Procedural and payoff inquiries should be directed to Adam J. Cohen, Esq. at Pullman & Comley, LLC, 850 Main Street in Bridgeport, CT 06601, (203) 330-2230.
