AUCTION NOTICES

The auction will take place as stated unless the total delinquency (including all principal, interest, charges, fees, expenses, and jeopardy accelerations) is paid in full by a record owner or encumbrancer, except as otherwise ordered by a court. Postponements will NOT occur at the request of an owner or encumbrancer. The auction will be open to the public, and anyone other than a record owner or encumbrancer may submit a bid in accordance with the rules stated herein and at the auction.

The property will be sold “as is” in all respects. It is now and will remain subject to all applicable laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations including but not limited to those related to planning, zoning, wetlands, health, building, safety, and the environment. Absolutely no guarantees are made as to the degree to which the property is or is not buildable, habitable, landlocked, contaminated, worth the purchase price, or suitable for any purpose, or as to the accuracy of any description, characterization, acreage, ownership, encumbrances, or addresses provided, or that the property or its title are insurable before or after the sale.

Interested bidders MUST attend the sale in person or by representative, bring government-issued identification, provide a social security number or federal employer ID number, and tender a deposit of $3,000.00 in cash or certified funds payable to “Pullman & Comley, Trustee” at the time of the auction. The successful bidder must pay the balance of the sale price within five (5) calendar days thereafter or forfeit this deposit; in the tax collector’s discretion, the second-highest bid might then be accepted. Title will pass to the purchaser six months after the auction except as otherwise provided by law, unless a record owner or encumbrancer validly redeems by paying the delinquency in full as increased pursuant to law. If redemption does not take place by the date six months after the auction and in the manner provided by law, the delinquent owners and all mortgagees, lienholders and other record encumbrancers who have received actual or constructive notice of such sale as provided by law, as well as all persons claiming interests which are inchoate or which postdate the recording of notice of this sale in the land records, are hereby notified that their respective titles, mortgages, liens and other encumbrances in such property shall be extinguished. This means you could permanently lose all of your rights in the property unless the delinquencies are paid in full before the auction or within six months thereafter.

You are advised to consult an attorney to determine your rights and obligations with respect to the tax sale. Procedural and payoff inquiries should be directed to Adam J. Cohen, Esq. at Pullman & Comley, LLC, 850 Main Street in Bridgeport, CT 06604, (203) 330-2230.
